

```
select * from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values;
--how do you select the top ten and bottom ten rows from your table(do for the table above)
--how do you do a count of all the rows on your table
--select the country from the table given with the second top most debt
--remove missing values and clean the dataset
--get the sum,average,min and the max value in the debt column of your table
```

```
--top 10 countries with highest debt
select *
from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values
order by debt desc
limit 10;
```

```
--bottom 10 countries with lowest debt
select *
from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values
where debt is not null
order by debt asc
limit 10;
```

```
--count of rows in the table
select count(*)
from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values;
```

```
--country with the second top most debt
select country_name, debt
from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values
where debt is not null
order by debt desc
offset 1 limit 1;
```

```
--remove missing value
select *
from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values
where debt is not null
and country_name is not null
and indicator_name is not null;
```

```
--find sum,average,min and max of debt column
select
SUM(debt) as total_debt,
AVG(debt) as avg_debt,
MIN(debt) as min_debt,
MAX(debt) as max_debt
from evening1.international_debt_with_missing_values
where debt is not null;
```